

Build IT Consulting Ltd is a specialist consultancy offering independent advice and services to businesses operating in the Construction Industry.

A Single Point Solution

Build IT Consulting Ltd work closely with number of independant companies to deliver services and solutions to meet the specific business requirements of our clients. The combination of these specialist service allow us to provide a single point solution to clients wanting to develop and optimise their use of IT within their businesses

Single Point Solution

As a group of service and solution providers we can provide any of the services outlined below based on your business requirements.

Strategic Services

Systems and application strategy
IT and systems alignment with corporate strategy
Vendor assessment and negotiations
Merger and acquisition IT integration strategy

Strategic Services

Process and System Review

Review of current systems - we specialise in the assessment of COINS and SAGE
Assessment of current business processes
Guidance on industry best practice
Recommendations on new systems, solutions and processes

Process & System Review

System Restructuring

Data and System migration
Data and System cleansing - deletion/archiving of redundant data

System Restructuring

Solution Implementation

Project Management services for the delivery of IT Projects
System and process documentation and training
Change management

Solution Implementation

Value Added Services

Inter-system Reporting & Business Intelligence solutions
Bespoke development of business tools and solutions
Application integration solutions

Value Added Services

System Infrastructure

UNIX consultancy and support
Remote system monitoring
High Availability and Disaster Recovery
Database dump, tuning and reloading

System Infrastructure

For further information on our services contact:

Iain Curtis